That the actions of said officers were malicious and not the actions of reasonably well-trained officers. Said actions violated the Plaintiff's right to be free from discriminatory official treatment, Religious discrimination, and violated Mr. Haegeman Substantive due process rights under the U.S. Constitution in violation of 42 U.S.C. Section 1983. Further U.S.C.S. 2331 Section. 5(I+II)

Minnesota Department of Corrections employees/ Correctional officer's oppressed, threatened and intimidated Mr. Haegeman.

Furthermore the defendants all conspired against the Plaintiff's Mr. Billups and Mr. Haegemans Minnesota Constitutional Right. Article 1 Sec. 16. "The right of every man to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience shall NEVER be infringed."

Mr. Haegemans and Mr. Billups's right to Christianity, their Religion of choice was compromised, abridged and disrespected by officers of The Minnesota Department of Correction. The Officers mentioned herein have also violated the Plaintiff's 1st Amendment to The United States of America's Constitution. "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of Religion; or prohibiting the free exercise thereof (Freedom of Religion)

Or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people peaceable to assemble, and to Petition the Government for a redress, of grievances."

The Defendant's violated the Plaintiff's Constitutional and Civil Rights as defined by U.S.C.S. 1983.
Furthermore; All of the officers violated Policy and Conspired against Mr. Billups and Mr. Hageman. All of the officers are employees of the United States of America and committed the following crimes according to the Plaintiff's.

It shall not constitute any defense or ground of suspension of judgement.

To keep this brief; Several employees of the United States of America plotted a variety of unjust, ungodly, and illegal activities during the time outlined in this Complaint.

The simultaneous retaliation over Mr. Hageman and Mr. Billups' wishes and Constitutional Right to their Bibles resulted in many negative damages both past and future to the Plaintiff's. All of the threats, the disrespect and disregard for Mr. Hageman's safety, the coercion, intimidation, and disrespect by the Minnesota Department of Corrections, Correctional officers acted as a group to plan in secret from other officers and the Plaintiff's an unspeakable crime.
